Editorial Policy

The purpose of the Journal of Financial Counseling and Planning is to disseminate scholarly research related to: the financial decision making of individuals and families; financial education and financial counseling techniques; and the education of professional financial educators, counselors, and planners. Research concerning all audiences, both U.S. and international, is encouraged.

Manuscripts are blind peer reviewed by members of the editorial board and by additional reviewers selected by the editor. The Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education® reserves the final right to accept or reject submissions and manuscripts.

Permission to Copy

Requests for permission to reproduce pages from the Journal of Financial Counseling and Planning should be directed to flawrence@lsu.edu.

Membership and Subscription

Individuals and institutions may receive the Journal of Financial Counseling and Planning by becoming members of the Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education®. Membership in AFCPE® costs $100 per year ($35 per year for full-time students). There is a postal surcharge of $35 for addresses outside of the U.S. zip code system. Members also receive a quarterly newsletter and a preferred rate for conference registration.
