Providing military spouses the opportunity to earn a career-enhancing credential—the Accredited Financial Counselor® (AFC®)—while providing financial counseling and education to the military community.

• On-base Personal Financial Managers
• Financial Educators and Coaches
• Mortgage Counselors
• Credit & Debt Counselors

They also volunteer with service-relief societies, family readiness groups and many others.

HOW DOES THE FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM WORK?

The Fellowship is provided by the FINRA Investor Education Foundation in partnership with the Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education® (AFCPE®), which administers the certification.

The FINRA Foundation Fellowship provides military spouses with:

• portable job skills that can be transferred no matter where the next PCS takes them;
• the ability to give back to the military community by promoting financial readiness at installations around the world;
• a credential to help jumpstart a career in financial counseling; and
• access to a large support network of FINRA Foundation Military Spouse Fellows and other military financial educators.

FINRA Foundation Military Spouse Fellows Are Employed As:

• On-base Personal Financial Managers
• Financial Educators and Coaches
• Mortgage Counselors
• Credit & Debt Counselors
• They also volunteer with service-relief societies, family readiness groups and many others.

1,600 + FELLOWSHIPS AWARDED
155,000 + SERVICE MEMBERS & FAMILIES COUNSELED
506,000 + COUNSELING HOURS IN THE MILITARY COMMUNITY
