Mary Ellen Edmondson Educator of the Year

The Mary Ellen Edmondson Educator of the Year Award honors an individual who has provided exceptional service to teaching and/or outreach.

Through the design or use of creative and innovative programs, they have made a profound impact on, or provided an exceptional service to, our profession and/or AFCPE.

They are a mentor who gives back to students or is committed to educating clients.

The winner of this award receives $500.

Application Questions:

There is a 500-word maximum for each essay question.

Optional: Submit a short, 2-5 minute video summarizing your application. This is a chance for applicants to visually 'tell their story' and highlight their experiences in a visual format.

1. Please describe the applicant's documented service and outreach in teaching or extension. Service involves dedicating time and expertise to enhance teaching, extension, or outreach to specific audiences.
 0. Examples of audiences include the general community, target groups such as BIPOC, immigrants, refugees, clientele, university/college students, and other professionals. Service may be a job requirement or voluntary. If no service is documented, please indicate N/A.
2. Please list or describe educational materials the applicant has developed or published that contribute to the field. Examples may include research articles, books, workbooks, pamphlets, fact sheets, blogs, websites, calculators, games, or other learning tools.

3. Please discuss how the applicant is a contributor to organizations, including AFCPE. (If not applicable please indicate N/A.)
4. Please discuss how the applicant is involved in creative and/or innovative program or curriculum development. Additionally, share any documented impacts from these developments, including how these impacts were measured (e.g., surveys, formal evaluations, observations). If not applicable, please indicate N/A.
5. Please discuss the applicant's service to the profession. (If not applicable please indicate N/A.)
6. Please discuss this applicant's mentoring activities: how the applicant nurtures, cares, and supports the whole person, not just the financial part. (If not applicable please indicate N/A.)
7. Attach relevant documentation as needed, not to exceed 10 pages total. (optional)
8. Biographical Sketch: This will be used for the AFCPE Awards Program if applicable.
9. Summarize your application in 200 words or less. This will be used for the AFCPE Awards Program if applicable.
